3. 21-357 Parks & Recreation Commission Work Plan Goals for FY 2020/21

Recommendation: Continue progress on Parks & Recreation Commission Work Plan Goals for FY 2020/21 and appoint subcommittee(s) as needed.

On March 16, the Commission noted progress on Work Plan Goal B through the design phase for both the Fairway Glen Park restroom, and Magical Bridge All-inclusive Playground in Central Park. The Commission discussed the potential need to form subcommittees to meet on Work Plan Goal C, Host the annual Santa Clara Art & Wine Festival. The subcommittee for Work Plan Goal D is planning to meet in April regarding potential usage of the proposed 30+ acre community park site.

STAFF REPORT

Deputy Director Seale provided an update on the Montague Park Rehabilitation Project which is being prepared for bid. Parks & Recreation and Public Works will be reviewing the Westwood Oaks proposals for landscape architecture firms for the design phase of the playground rehabilitation project. Construction at the Lawrence Station parks is continuing at the community center building, community garden, and playground areas. The contractor at Raymond G. Gamma Dog Park will be installing the synthetic turf in the coming weeks. The Magical Bridge All-inclusive playground is in the design phase. The Department is working on the design for the Bowers Park nature loop. The Fairway Glen Park Restroom Project is continuing with the design phase. The new Jerry Marsalli Community Center sign has been installed at Reed & Grant Sports Park. Athletic fields are ready for programming. The Parks Division has two new certified arborists for a total of four International Society of Arboriculture Certified Arborists for the Department. The Department continues progress on smart park technology through the beginning stages of centralized irrigation control and WiFi connectivity in collaboration with the IT Department particularly with rehabilitation and new park projects.

Recreation Manager Castro: Many recreation programs have been offered virtually, and in an effort to get families out into parks while adhering to current health and safety protocols, the Recreation Division launched "Lucky the Leprechaun" for kids to visit parks and take fun pictures with Lucky, in addition to "Eggsplore" which encourages kids to visit a series of eight parks to a scavenger hunt for large painted eggs prepared by the Youth Commission. The Wellness Fair will be in May using an online conference format, along with short session wellness classes such as mindfulness, exercise, yoga, sit and be fit, etc. The Recreation Division is currently conducting registration for the spring session with online classes and some in-person classes starting the first week of April. The Cultural Commission will be showcasing 25 sculptures from various local artists in a video format. The Cultural Commission will be launching a survivor's art piece about what the Covid-19 pandemic has meant using a variety of media, including spoken word, video, painting, photos, etc. in addition to launching an initiative to paint another set of utility boxes.

COMMISSIONERS REPORT

Commissioner Carter-House: Would like to have the subcommittee for the proposed 30+ acre community park meet again in the coming weeks to discuss potential use of the park site prior to having major improvements made.

Commissioner Field: Expressed he had not visited parks within the past month and was focused on soccer field availability.

Commissioner Gonzalez: Visited Reed & Grant Sports Park where her daughter started the season. She noted the flow of traffic is working well in spite the heavy use of the facility. Visited Central Park and worked out along the park loop and exercise trail. Looking forward to the improvements in Central Park. She also visited Henry Schmidt Park.

Commissioner Guerra: Visited Central Park to take a nice walk through the park.

Commissioner Knaack: Visited Fremont Park.

Vice-Chair Forte: Worked out at Eddie Souza Park. On March 17, he will be touring the Eddie Souza community garden for home composting, the honey bee and native bee housing demo, etc. He encouraged other commissioners to visit and tour the community garden.

The time limit within which to commence any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City is governed by Section 1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless a shorter limitation period is specified by any other provision. Under Section 1094.6, any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City must be filed no later than the 90th day following the date on which such decision becomes final. Any lawsuit or legal challenge, which is not filed within that 90-day period, will be barred. If a person wishes to challenge the nature of the above section in court, they may be limited to raising only those issues they or someone else raised at the meeting described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City of Santa Clara, at or prior to the meeting. In addition, judicial challenge may be limited or barred where the interested party has not sought and exhausted all available administrative remedies.

If a member of the public submits a speaker card for any agenda items, their name will appear in the Minutes. If no speaker card is submitted, the Minutes will reflect "Public Speaker."

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of Santa Clara will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities, and will ensure that all existing facilities will be made accessible to the maximum extent feasible. The City of Santa Clara will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities including those with speech, hearing, or vision impairments so they can participate equally in the City's programs, services, and activities. The City of Santa Clara will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities.

Agendas and other written materials distributed during a public meeting that are public record will be made available by the City in an appropriate alternative format. Contact the City Clerk's Office at 1 408-615-2220 with your request for an alternative format copy of the agenda or other written materials.

Individuals who require an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or any other disability-related modification of policies or procedures, or other accommodation, in order to participate in a program, service, or activity of the City of Santa Clara, should contact the City's ADA Coordinator at 408-615-3000 as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.
