this advisory board:

I've been living in the bay area for over 34 years including living in the beautiful city of Santa Clara for over 25 years. I'm involved in many organizations that work towards supporting community, arts and culture. My goal will be to promote cultural diversity, foster community engagement by bringing community together through cultural events, festivals and initiatives. I'd like to use my experience to make a positive impact on the community by promoting arts, culture and inclusivity.

Additional Information

Any other information which you feel would be useful to the City Council in reviewing your application:

KUKU DAS Santa Clara, CA Ms. Kuku Das has been a successful entrepreneur, community leader and cultural ambassador of Odisha, India not only in the Bay Area, California, but for much of the U.S. for more than three decades. Additionally, she is the creative brain behind establishing the organization *International Gurukul (iGurukul) which is known as the center for excellence in learning and human development. She has been instrumental in propagating Odia language (Co-founded Chala Ame Odia Sikhiba/ Let's Learn Odia), drama, and culture in Bay Area California. She has developed a curriculum for the Odia Language class at iGurukul which helps teach Odia in an interesting way for both adults and children. She has written, directed and acted in numerous plays for kids and adults. She also excels as a costume and set designer with her creative ideas and immense knowledge about Odia culture and history. She is not only an active member of the Bay Area Odia community but also a commendable contributor to the Odisha Society of Americas. She has served twice as the cultural chair at OSA Annual Conventions, Convener of 2010 OSA Convention (San Francisco), Vice President of OSA, and President of OSA(2019-2021). She was instrumental in leading "Let's Learn Odia movement at the OSA national level and with her advocacy OSA has introduced the Odia Vocabulary and Speech contest during both the annual convention and chapter level events. She's the producer of the Odia radio program for the first time in California known as 'Aame Odia' which has been airing since 2018.
She has more than 25 years of combined experience in public, private, and non-profit organizations in the areas of teaching, leadership, community building, event management, and fundraising. She has received several awards including the OSA Service Leadership Award (2010 & 2014), Odisha Living Legend Award, Amari Bhasa Pathe Samman, Lions Club International Entrepreneur Award, Kalashree Award, OSA, USA 2018 (for promoting Odia language and culture in a foreign diaspora) Shrestha Odiani 2019, Mahaka Mo Matira Samman, Aarya Award 2022, OSA Community Leadership Award in the year 2022, and OSA's highest honor Distinguished Odia Award, OSA, USA in 2023.
She has served as the president of OSA, The Odisha Society Of The Americas from 2019-21. She was the convener and successfully hosted The Global Odia Mahotsav, a two days online event in December 2020, where Odias from around forty countries united to celebrate Odisha. Global Odia Mahotsav 2020 was a commemoration of Odias around the world to celebrate the rich culture, heritage and develop synergy to build Brand Odisha. This two-days event had various seminars, cultural functions with participation of eminent Odia personalities. Currently, she is serving as the CEO of iGurukul Inc. USA.
"The unhindered mission iGurukul has always been to enhance inner potential, synergy, empowerment, creativity, and above all else, foster personal excellence among children, youth and families. iGurukul works as a finishing school with a special focus on developing emotional, social and spiritual quotients. Synergy and Empowerment is her mantra.

She's also a member of Ascociation of Indo Americans and a part of the cultural team.
