Wade Brummal Youth Sports Grant Program Application

Introduction

The Wade Brummal Youth Sports Grant Program was established in memory of Santa Clara resident and youth sports enthusiast Wade Brummal. On October 27, 2015, Council approved a fee of $25 per non-resident youth participant in Santa Clara youth sports organizations as a means of generating funds to support economically challenged Santa Clara youth to participate in local Santa Clara based youth sports programs.

General Information

1. Groups receiving funds shall submit a report on achievements accomplished with the funds received.
2. Groups shall submit a financial statement related to the expenditure of grant funds upon completion of the program, project, or activity. Funds are reimbursed only.
3. Grant funds are not issued directly to individuals. Checks are to be made out to organizations only.
4. Groups are asked to acknowledge the support of the Wade Brummal Grant Program where appropriate.

Eligibility

1. The organization must be a City of Santa Clara based non-profit sports serving youth 18 years and under and comply with Title IX.
2. The organization must contribute to the non-resident fee program and be current in its payment of non-resident youth participant fees.
3. Grant funds must be used to cover registration and/or participation fees, enhancing services, training, equipment, facilities, or other expenses related to the sport, league, or activity.
4. Requests shall be made by organizations no more than one time per quarter.
5. A limit of $2,000 per group, per request can be granted by the Parks & Recreation Department.
6. Larger grant amounts may be considered by the Parks & Recreation Commission provided the Grant Program has accumulated sufficient funds.

Priorities of Funding

1. Participant Scholarships. Reimbursement of a youth sports organization's direct financial assistance to support disadvantaged residents to participate in the sport (i.e. league registration fees, participation, etc.)
2. Relevant program costs. Reimbursement for new equipment, field repairs, capital projects, and maintenance costs. Eligible facilities must be in the City of Santa Clara and publicly accessible.
3. Reimbursement of costs related to additional competition expenses (i.e., travel).
4. If the balance of the Wade Brummel Grant program balance is greater than $50,000 at the end of the fiscal year, the Parks & Recreation Commission may choose to contribute funds towards activities that would benefit Santa Clara youth sports.

Contributions to the fund do not constitute a guarantee of funding.

Grant payments are administered by the City of Santa Clara, Parks & Recreation Department.
