

City of Santa Clara Historical and Landmarks Commission

Item 12.C. - Promotion of Vacancy

April 18, 2017

Santa Clara's Rich History

- Santa Clara was founded as a city in 1852
- Over 150 years of growth has left a rich cultural and architectural heritage

Saw California Grow

Santa Clara's Rich History

- Spanish, Mexican, and Portuguese influence

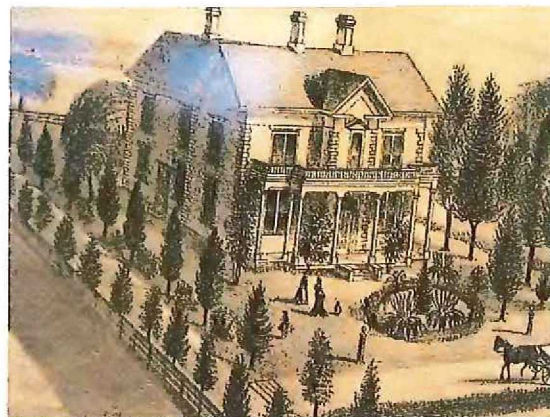

3

Santa Clara's Rich History

- European settlements and the American period influenced the area

4

What We Do...

- Advise the City Council on policies, programs and development applications for historic resources
- Make recommendations to preserve local historical resources
- Serve as a resource to owners of historic homes
- Promote public outreach for Santa Clara's rich history
- Develop educational programs and support local non-profit historical agencies

5

Certified Local Government

At least two (2) Commissioners are encouraged to be professionals in the areas of:

- Architecture, architectural history or planning
- History, pre-historic or historic archeology
- Folklore, cultural anthropology or curation
- Conservation or landscape architecture
- Related disciplines, such as cultural geography

6

Join the Historical & Landmarks Commission

- Make a difference in our community!
- Participate in the issues affecting our community
- Assist in creating a balance between preservation and development

7

How to Apply

To make a positive impact in the City of Santa Clara, we cordially invite you to apply for the opening to serve in the Historical and Landmarks Commission.

- Submit your completed application to the City Clerk's Office by 5:00pm on June 20, 2017
- Attend the City Council regular meeting for the Interview and Appointment at 6:00pm on June 27, 2017
- Attend 1st regular Commission meeting on July 6, 2017
- Contact the City Clerk's Office at (408) 615-2220 for questions and/or comments

8

City of Santa Clara Historical and Landmarks Commission

Item 12.C. - Promotion of Vacancy

April 18, 2017

