

11-27-18

18-1335

Item 2. A

New Hazardous Materials Vehicle

Santa Clara Fire Department

November 27, 2018

City of Santa Clara
The Center of What's Possible

New Hazardous Materials Response Vehicle

- December 2015 Development Agreement with Irvine Company for Santa Clara Square
 - voluntary contribution for the purchase of a Fire Department vehicle
- Staff determined that a Hazardous Materials Response unit was needed

2

POST MEETING MATERIAL

City of
Santa Clara
The Center of What's Possible

New Hazardous Materials Vehicle

- Enhanced community protection from hazardous materials spills and related emergencies
- Outfitted with most current equipment and technology

3

City of
Santa Clara
The Center of What's Possible

Vehicle Attributes

- Specialized equipment to contain large chemical spills
- Onboard Command Center
- Mobile Laboratory for chemical analysis
- Wi-Fi hot spot
- Telescoping light tower

4

Vehicle Attributes (continued)

- Air compressor
- Large capacity for equipment storage
- Shade awning for personal protection
- Onboard weather station
- Technical reference library
- Latest vehicle safety systems

5

Acknowledgements

Contributing Partners:

- Irvine Company
- Firefighter Design Team
- Public Works - Automotive Services
- Finance Department
- Fire Department Responders

6

City of Santa Clara

The Center of What's Possible

