Joining the Santa Clara Parks & Recreation Commission presents several meaningful opportunities

- 1) Influence Park Development and Rehabilitation I look forward to working with the commission to review residential developer proposals for new neighborhood parks and provide input on park rehabilitation projects. This is an exciting opportunity to shape the city's green spaces and ensure they meet the community's evolving needs.
- 2) Participate in Major City Events I would like to be actively involved in organizing and contributing to citywide celebrations like the Santa Clara Art & Wine Festival and the annual Holiday Tree Lighting. I also would love to revisit bringing back the 4th of July community celebration that once brought residents out to Central Park for a fun day of social activities.
- 3) Contribute to the Parks & Recreation Master Plan I'm eager to participate in the city's long-term planning for park spaces, recreation facilities, and accessibility improvements. This goal is particularly important given the recent passage of Measure I and the unique opportunities that additional funding would create for our city's park spaces.

In addition to my stated goals above, I pledge to diligently fulfill my obligations as a commissioner, which includes regularly attending commission meetings, visiting the city's 40+ parks and facilities, and reporting back to the commission my findings.

Any other information which you feel would be useful to the City Council in reviewing your application:

Currently, I serve as a Santa Clara County Fish and Game Commissioner. However, with that commission being sunsetted, I'm exploring new opportunities to continue making a positive impact in my community.

I've been a proud resident of Santa Clara and a neighbor to Machado Park and the Briarwood Little League fields for over two decades. I actively participated in community hearings for the Machado Park modernization and am now eager to expand my involvement in local initiatives across the city.
