Memorandum

Date: February 25, 2025
To: Mayor and City Council
From: Mayor and Council Office
Subject: Adjournment of the February 25, 2025, Council & Authorities Concurrent Meeting

Adjournment

To be read by Mayor Gillmor

Please adjourn the February 25, 2025, meeting in memory of former City employees Sheila Ivers and Rol Pfeifer.

Sheila Ivers:

- Sheila Ivers, a resident of San Jose, passed away on February 5, 2025, at the age of 77.
- Sheila was the first of her family to go to college, graduating from San Jose State University in 1970, a member of St. Martin of Tours Parish for 45 years, dedicating community service to the church, the Girl Scouts of Santa Clara, and was part of the team that help build the Guadalupe River Park in San Jose.
- Sheila worked for the City of Santa Clara for over 17 years in the Departments of Parks and Recreation, Water and Sewer Utilities, and Human Resources as a Personnel Clerk to a Typist Clerk III. Sheila retired in 2016.
- She is survived by her husband, Barry; her children, Samantha Kimmel, Dani Ivers Risley, and Barry Ivers, Jr., and grandchildren Xander, Trey, DJ, Jaxon, and Jayden.

Rol Pfeifer:

- Rol Pfeifer passed away on February 6, 2025, at the age of 74. Rol lived near Morgan Hill for over 30 years and lived part time in Maui for the last 12 years.
- He dedicated work to charities including Habit for Humanity, Feed My Sheep to feed the homeless, and provided the ministry of music at Holy Family Church in San Jose and also at St. Theresa in Maui.
- Rol worked for the City of Santa Clara for 22 years as an Assistant City Attorney as counsel for Silicon Valley Power and retired in 2006.
- Rol is survived by his wife Joan; his five siblings and their spouses: brothers Ivan and Lyle, sisters Janine, Joni, and Marie; and his 21 nieces and nephews, and 27 grandnieces and grandnephews.
