Councilmembers Hardy and Chahal are under investigation with the FPPC for gifts from the 49ers

The Mercury News – Sept 2, 2022

Documents obtained by San José Spotlight show Brian Doyle—Santa Clara’s former city attorney who was fired last year and had a contentious relationship with the 49ers—filed a complaint against Hardy and Chahal with the California Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) accusing them of accepting stadium passes on Nov. 15, 2021. He claimed the passes were worth at least $520 and last December the two told the public they were at the game to observe “operations” but did not report the cost of the tickets. Doyle claimed those tickets are gifts, under California conflict of interest laws and regulations.
