GENERAL BUSINESS

2. 25-392 Discussion and Possible Action on Youth Commission FY 2024/25 Work Plan & Goals

Community Building with Santa Clara residents:

The committee made the decision to postpone the SC Hacks Hackathon event to next year's term, due to low enrollment. Committee is continuing the planning of their multicultural event, Harmony of Cultures. This event will be held at the Teen Center on Saturday, April 26th. Committee will send out invitations to local high school clubs to participate. This event will include cultural performances, food, and music.

Public Outreach & Education:

The committee met with representative from QCorner and learned about their organization's resources. Commissioners reached out to our library to organize a possible future NARCAN demonstration for the public. The committee will continue to develop New Resident Welcome resource packets and suggestions for improving the publication, including: incorporating photos, and utilizing free online translation services.

Youth Empowerment:

The committee reported on the Santa Clara Speaks event held on April 3rd at the Teen Center. The Santa Clara Youth Commission, with the Santa Clara High School Wellness Center, hosted a panel discussion about middle-to-high school transition for students and parents. Topics included:

- Academic expectations in high school,
- Social and emotional adjustments,
- Parent support strategies, and
- School-life balance

The event ended with a Q&A session. The goal was to help families navigate this transition by offering advice from school professionals and current high school students.

STAFF REPORT

Karen Guzman, Youth Services Librarian, discussed upcoming Library events and resources for our teen population. These programs included free online tutoring, mental health resources, and Bricks by the Books event that will be held on May 10th at the Central Park Library.

Gayle Ichiho, Recreation Supervisor, announced the recommended Youth Commissioners for next year's term. This year's outgoing and incoming Youth Commissioners will be recognized at the upcoming May 13 City Council meeting. She also confirmed that our last Youth Commission meeting for this year's term will be held after the City Council meeting in the City Hall cafeteria.

MEETING DISCLOSURES

The time limit within which to commence any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City is governed by Section 1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless a shorter limitation period is specified by any other provision. Under Section 1094.6, any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City must be filed no later than the 90th day following the date on which such decision becomes final. Any lawsuit or legal challenge, which is not filed within that 90-day period, will be barred. If a person wishes to challenge the nature of the above section in court, they may be limited to raising only those issues they or someone else raised at the meeting described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City of Santa Clara, at or prior to the meeting. In addition, judicial challenge may be limited or barred where the interested party has not sought and exhausted all available administrative remedies.

If a member of the public submits a speaker card for any agenda items, their name will appear in the Minutes. If no speaker card is submitted, the Minutes will reflect "Public Speaker."

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of Santa Clara will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities, and will ensure that all existing facilities will be made accessible to the maximum extent feasible. The City of Santa Clara will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities including those with speech, hearing, or vision impairments so they can participate equally in the City's programs, services, and activities. The City of Santa Clara will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities.

Agendas and other written materials distributed during a public meeting that are public record will be made available by the City in an appropriate alternative format. Contact the City Clerk's Office at 1 408-615-2220 with your request for an alternative format copy of the agenda or other written materials.

Individuals who require an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or any other disability-related modification of policies or procedures, or other accommodation, in order to participate in a program, service, or activity of the City of Santa Clara, should contact the City's ADA Coordinator at 408-615-3000 as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.
