Please adjourn the November 13, 2018 City Council meeting in memory of the following:

Bruce Lindberg, (Ret.) Captain of Santa Clara Police Department

- Captain Bruce Lindberg and his family moved to Santa Clara in 1946.
- After graduating from Santa Clara High School, he served in the Army.
- He joined the Santa Clara Police Department and retired as a Captain after 31 years of service to the City of Santa Clara, retiring in 1988.
- Captain Lindberg passed away on October 9, 2018, at the age of 85.

Eileen Marie Doyle, Mother of City Attorney Brian Doyle

- Eileen was born in Brooklyn, New York in 1926.
- Eileen was the beloved wife of the late Joseph T. Doyle, with whom she raised their seven children with. She was extremely devoted to her family.
- The Doyle house on Rockville Avenue was often full to the brim. Though having six sons and a daughter, Eileen and her husband never turned down a guest and even used the tent trailer in the backyard as an extra guest room.
- Eileen often hosted legendary dinner parties with spirited discussions around the dinner table.
- Eileen's adventurous spirit made her determined to have her family see the world and from a broader perspective; she and her husband would pack as many people as possible into a van towing a tent-trailer and travelled across the continent.
- Eileen is survived by her children, Brian (Theresa), Ann (Michael), Edward, Matthew (Kimberly), Peter, and Frank (Maria) and by her 12 beloved grandchildren. She was predeceased in life by her husband, Joseph T., and by her son, Joseph A.
- Eileen will be remembered by all for her humor and compassion, adventurous spirit, and love of life.
- Eileen passed away on October 30, 2018, at the age of 92.
