Hello,

I wanted to let you know that I got this alert less than 24 hours before the meeting. I checked this item online over the weekend (maybe even this morning) and there was not a single document associated with this item. Isn't there some kind of rule about this?

I just read the letter from the county, and I have to say, it was pretty rude. It is always so frustrating when the actions one takes is a letter or threatening legal action. Is that really what my tax dollars are paying for? Does the attorney not have any sensitivity or awareness as to what the city just went through?

I am disappointed in the county's attitude in trying to resolve this. I'd like to better understand the process the Economic Development Office went through and the awareness made to the City, Council, and the public.

So does this property just get pushed through? Is it not possible for the City to purchase it?

Again, I really don't like the attitude or tone of the letter from the County. Is there something the public can do to tell them to "relax" and to allow the City to review the issues around the land? Or maybe you can simply put a covenant that the land cannot be developed until *after* the lease term expires with Cedar Fair in 2087 or whenever it was, even if Cedar Fair sell their property to the 49ers or anyone else next year. There cannot and should not be a windfall situation for the property owner. If the property owner is expecting a $30,000/yr for 65 years, then something should be done to mandate that condition unless a substantial fee is paid....or something like that.

A $500K/acre land value in the future of Santa Clara's Uptown neighborhood is very valuable.

Respectfully,

Kirk Vartan
