GAMEDAY INFO AND FAN REMINDERS FOR 49ERS MONDAY NIGHT GAME VS. GIANTS
This week's game is presented by ORIG3N

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — The San Francisco 49ers host the New York Giants in this year's Salute to Service game at 5:15 p.m., Monday, November 12th, at Levi's Stadium. The game will be televised nationally on ESPN and locally on ABC 7. Additionally, there will be coverage available on radio broadcasts in the Bay Area on KNBR 680-AM and KSAN 107.7 FM The Bone and in Spanish on 49ers.com. Fans looking for tickets to Monday's game should visit Ticketmaster.com.

Due to the early evening kickoff, fans are reminded to account for typical Bay Area rush hour traffic in their commute to Levi's Stadium and carpool with friends if possible. Those driving to the game should also purchase a parking pass in advance at LevisStadium.com. Guests are encouraged to use VTA light rail and/or Caltrain service to and from the game. Timetables and additional service schedules are available at VTA.org/levis-stadium-light-rail-service-schedules and Caltrain.com/schedules/weekdaytimetable.html. VTA bus service is also available for BART riders from the Warm Springs station.

Parking lots open at 1:45 p.m. on Monday and in those lots where tailgating is permitted, tailgates must be concluded by kickoff. Faithful Mile presented by Global Syn-Turf and premium gates open at 2:15 p.m. and all gates to the stadium open at 3:15 p.m. Guests should, rather than using a GPS system, follow the gameday driving directions shown on the parking pass and available here: <http://www.levisstadium.com/plan-your-visit/parking-lot-maps>.

As a reminder, amplified noise is not permitted in any stadium parking lots. Additionally, please note that one parking space is allotted per parking
