Questions

Is your organization a registered California corporate non-profit? Yes x No No
2. Is at least 51% if your organization's participants and/or Board of Directors Santa Clara residents? Yes x No
Is your organization's principal office and base of operations in the City of Santa Clara? Yes x No
4. Does your organization have an active board that meets at least annually and establishes and enforces policies? Yes x No
5. Please describe how your organization contributes to the Santa Clara community: Since 1962, the Santa Clara Chorale has provided singers and audiences alike the opportunity to experience great choral music. Members and audiences have been introduced to the classical choral music of Beethoven and Mozart, the challenging contemporary music of Eric Whitacre and Libby Larsen, and the diversity of traditions in jazz, popular music, and world music. Known for our community and educational outreach, the Chorale regularly collaborates with local school and community ensembles to bring the experience of making and hearing great music to a broad and multi-generational audience.
6. Please describe how your organization reflects the diversity that makes up the City of Santa Clara. This reflection may be in the group's structure, in its artistic vision, in the composition of its membership and direction, or in its choice of repertory: Chorale membership includes a wide variety of ages, professions, and cultural backgrounds, from university Collaborations with other ensembles that represent demographics in the community further expands that range. Our audience is the most significant reflection of diversity, as it includes members of the Santa Clara community, as well as family and friends of our members. Our programming is extremely diverse. Recent selections have included music that is aimed at engaging a diverse audience such as our recent, "Musica con los Muertos" concert, in which we partnered with a Mariachi ensemble, and last year's "Bavaria and Beer" concert which featured classical pieces as well as bier hall sing-alongs!
7. What are some strategies and approaches that your organization have utilize in the past year to increase marketing, membership and the number of attendance? The Chorale has built a reputation for providing high-caliber performances at prices that are accessible to a broad cross-section of our community. Tickets are kept at an affordable $25, with discounts for students and seniors. Offering free admission to kids 18 and under has improved our attendance considerably. Partnering with other organizations like school choirs and guest artists and ensembles such as the SCU choirs and the San Jose Chamber orchestra results in new audiences every season. Complimentary tickets are offered to first-time guests of the singers, in an effort to expand our audience.
8. Is your organization willing to acknowledge the support the City of Santa Clara where appropriate and include this information on all printed material related to to funding, including programs, etc. (e.g. collateral, events, opening of events, magazines and booklets, website, Facebook, and email)? Yes x No 9. Is your organization willing to provide a free concert or demonstration performance in Santa Clara at a mutually agreed upon time and location sometime during the fiscal year? Yes x No 10. Is your organization willing to help volunteer at Cultural Commission events and provide marketing materials for events? Yes x No
Diversifying our Programming and Audiences:

Over the past two seasons the Chorale has had in intentional focus on increasing the diversity of our programs to better reflect the diversity of the Santa Clara community. In recent seasons we have performed traditional Chinese and Hebrew folk songs, Indian ragga, and an entire concert program inspired by the Mexican holiday, "Dia de los Muertos" in which we also partnered with a Mariachi ensemble to round-out our program. We are also keen to partner with organizations that will extend our reach into our diverse community, such as our collaboration with Shanti, an arts organization performing traditional Indian music across the US. The Chorale's leadership and membership alike are excited about these developments and we look forward to sharing more exciting work with more and more diverse Santa Clara audiences in the near future.
