Subject: Adjournment of the April 30, 2019 Meeting

Please adjourn the April 30, 2019 meeting in memory of the following individual:

Janet M. McCarthy, American Mother to Chief Operating Officer Walter C. Rossmann

- Janet was born on April 28, 1945 in Greenock, McKeesport.
- Janet was a founding partner of Radelet McCarthy Architects. She enjoyed close relationships with her co-workers, and considered them a part of her extended family.
- She loved to travel, experience new cultures, and see the sunsets in the new lands.
- Janet's life was enriched by her close relationships with seven nieces and nephews, her nine great-nieces and nephews, many cousins, as well as Walter C. Rossmann, who was a high-school exchange student and lived with Janet and her husband Dennis for one year in the mid-1980s. Since then, Janet, her husband Dennis, and Walter were forever intertwined.
- Janet was one of the readers at Walter and Liliana's wedding, and later Janet and her husband, Dennis became the godparents of Walter and Liliana's two children.
- Janet passed away on March 7, 2019, at the age of 73.
- She is survived by her husband, Dennis; sisters, Judy Marshall and Mary Ellen Driver; and brother, Charles Kerber.
- Janet touched the lives of many, and will be forever remembered for her smile, warmth, energy, and love for life.
