

OFFICIAL TRAVEL BY ELECTED OFFICIALS

PURPOSE	Consistent with the City of Santa Clara (City)'s Code of Ethics and Values, the City is fiscally responsible and endorses the proper use of City assets to help ensure the City's fiscal stability. In order to ensure an open and transparent government, the City Council will regulate and prescribe guidelines for official travel by all elected officials. Reimbursement for official travel funded by non-City entities shall be in accordance with the guidelines issued by such other non-City entity. To the extent the official's expenses are not reimbursed by the non-City entity, the official may request reimbursement in accordance with the requirements of this policy (e.g., the official is chosen to serve as the City representative on a County-wide committee and the County agency sends the official to a conference, and reimburses the official for conference attendance and hotel, but not for meals and mileage; the Official may seek reimbursement for meals and mileage in accordance with the terms of this policy.) This policy does not address an official's reporting requirements relative to payments by a non-City entity for official travel; elected officials must comply with FPPC reporting requirements relating to payments for travel.
POLICY	In order to control and properly account for expenditures made by elected officials in the course of their official duties, only authorized expenses may be reimbursed in accordance with the Travel-Meal Reimbursement & IRS Mileage Rates established by the Finance Department on an annual basis and within the criteria outlined within this policy. Any questions regarding the appropriateness of a particular type of expense should be resolved by the City Council before the expense is incurred. Examples of non-reimbursable expenses include personal expenses, charitable/political contributions, entertainment expenses, personal losses incurred while travelling, and expenses for family members. In order to conserve City resources and keep expenses within community standards for public officials, expenditure amounts should adhere to the guidelines set forth within. Expenses that exceed these guidelines will be reimbursed only to the maximum extent of the guidelines.

All cash expenditures, credit card expenses, and expense reimbursement requests must be submitted to the City Auditor on an expense report form provided by the City, accompanied by receipts documenting each expense. Expense and mileage reports must document that the expense in question meets the requirements of this policy. Inability to provide such documentation in a timely fashion may result in the expense being borne by the official.

All expenses are subject to review and verification by the City Auditor for compliance with this policy and eligibility for reimbursement.
