Hello,
My public comment went unacknowledged at the planning meeting. I would like to appeal the decision, and I request that it be reheard.

Thank you,

Hello,
The timing of this purchase of iPads during the COVID-19 crisis is questionable. When the City is facing huge budget deficits due to the decline of economic activity, tax revenues, and convention/tourism/stadium business, the City needs to be spending available funds on things like distribution of food, masks, and test kits. It's really bad political optics at this moment to spend over $11,000 on new iPads.

Please explain the choices that went into putting this on the consent calendar. I am opposed to the purchase.

Thank you,
