STAFF REPORT

Recreation Manager Castro gave an update on Parks and Recreation programs and activities. She mentioned the City is continuing the daily Senior Nutrition Meal Program at the Senior Center for a $3.00 suggested donation. She encouraged the Commission to refer seniors to the program. January 6, will be a celebration of day 200 of the service. She mentioned the City continues to collaborate with the Salvation Army and the Second Harvest Food Bank with the essential food service program on Wednesdays. Recreation classes and programs have been moved to a virtual platform. Registration is open and classes begin week of January 11. She mentioned funding and essential services. She also reported that the holiday programs added to the community and thanked the commission for the videos.

COMMISSIONERS REPORT

Chair Samara reported it was great to judge the Holiday Home Decorating Contest and see so many submissions. He was happy with the social media blasts and contest results.

Commissioner Sulcer reported that Dr. Piper appreciated and was pleased with the Kwanzaa video. She went camping and shared a story about a commemorative art piece in Mountain Ranch. She mentioned a permanent art piece in a Community Center. She would like to implement something similar in Santa Clara.

Commissioner Bhatia, mentioned personal memories associated with Covid 19 and elaborated on the possible art project that Commissioner Sulcer mentioned. She has worked with the organization, Kids in Art. She shared how kids use art to share their personal experiences and sell them to raise funds for the program. She mentioned farmers protests, and how they can use art to explain experiences and world challenges.

Commissioner von Huene mentioned the pocket exhibition can be implemented quickly and can include Youth Commission. She registered for a national endowment for the arts grant writing seminar and will bring a report back to the commission in February.

Commissioner Marinaro attended Christmas in the Park and participated in the Covid Ambassador Program.

The time limit within which to commence any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City is governed by Section 1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless a shorter limitation period is specified by any other provision. Under Section 1094.6, any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City must be filed no later than the 90th day following the date on which such decision becomes final. Any lawsuit or legal challenge, which is not filed within that 90-day period, will be barred. If a person wishes to challenge the nature of the above section in court, they may be limited to raising only those issues they or someone else raised at the meeting described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City of Santa Clara, at or prior to the meeting. In addition, judicial challenge may be limited or barred where the interested party has not sought and exhausted all available administrative remedies.

If a member of the public submits a speaker card for any agenda items, their name will appear in the Minutes. If no speaker card is submitted, the Minutes will reflect "Public Speaker."

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of Santa Clara will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities, and will ensure that all existing facilities will be made accessible to the maximum extent feasible. The City of Santa Clara will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities including those with speech, hearing, or vision impairments so they can participate equally in the City's programs, services, and activities. The City of Santa Clara will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities.

Agendas and other written materials distributed during a public meeting that are public record will be made available by the City in an appropriate alternative format. Contact the City Clerk's Office at 1 408-615-2220 with your request for an alternative format copy of the agenda or other written materials.

Individuals who require an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or any other disability-related modification of policies or procedures, or other accommodation, in order to participate in a program, service, or activity of the City of Santa Clara, should contact the City's ADA Coordinator at 408-615-3000 as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.
