PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS

Debra von Huene, Cultural Commissioner, shared information on an upcoming project called "Surviving COVID" pocket exhibition in cooperation with the Triton Museum. This exhibition aims to provide a spotlight on the losses, missed rites of passage, and concepts of freedom while recognizing what is important to us and what we hope to regain. The exhibit will showcase a variety of mediums including paintings, photography, written word, sculpture, and music. Ms. von Huene will provide more information on the exhibit and call for artists when it is available.

Shailee Nanavati, President of Bears to Share, provided information on the organization and its goal of recruiting and activating volunteers to help their communities by sewing masks for health care workers, making stuffed animals for children in hospitals, and working on projects to help people in need. Interested community members can visit the Bears to Share website for more information: <https://bearstoshare.org/>

Interested applicants may also contact Jon Kawada, Staff Liaison, for more information.

COMMISSIONERS REPORT

2. 21-158 Youth Commission Committee Reports on Work Plan Goals

Environmentalism Committee: Have narrowed their focus for potential virtual workshop themes to include STEM and technology in relation to the environment. A few committee members will also be attending the Students for Green High Schools virtual conference. Conference attendees will participate in virtual workshops and learn what their peers are doing to improve the environment in and around their communities.

Health & Wellness Committee: Would like to interview a local public health official to ask questions about COVID-19 that may be of interest to youth and teens. Committee members will discuss what type of questions and format at their upcoming committee meeting. Committee members also decorated hearts with positive messages that were distributed, along with a treat, at the Senior Center's nutrition program the Friday before Valentine's Day.

Public Outreach Committee: Discussed the Black History Month posts on social media. This week-long content was relatively new to the committee and they would like to continue this feature in future months. They will discuss possible content for Fast Fact Fridays and week-long content at their upcoming committee meeting. This committee will also begin to assist with sharing information on upcoming commission projects.

ADJOURNMENT

A motion was made by Chair Suresh, seconded by Commissioner Krivokapic-Zhou, that this meeting be adjourned at 6:48 p.m.

The time limit within which to commence any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City is governed by Section 1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless a shorter limitation period is specified by any other provision. Under Section 1094.6, any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City must be filed no later than the 90th day following the date on which such decision becomes final. Any lawsuit or legal challenge, which is not filed within that 90-day period, will be barred. If a person wishes to challenge the nature of the above section in court, they may be limited to raising only those issues they or someone else raised at the meeting described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City of Santa Clara, at or prior to the meeting. In addition, judicial challenge may be limited or barred where the interested party has not sought and exhausted all available administrative remedies.

If a member of the public submits a speaker card for any agenda items, their name will appear in the Minutes. If no speaker card is submitted, the Minutes will reflect "Public Speaker."

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of Santa Clara will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities, and will ensure that all existing facilities will be made accessible to the maximum extent feasible. The City of Santa Clara will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities including those with speech, hearing, or vision impairments so they can participate equally in the City's programs, services, and activities. The City of Santa Clara will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities.

Agendas and other written materials distributed during a public meeting that are public record will be made available by the City in an appropriate alternative format. Contact the City Clerk's Office at 1 408-615-2220 with your request for an alternative format copy of the agenda or other written materials.

Individuals who require an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or any other disability-related modification of policies or procedures, or other accommodation, in order to participate in a program, service, or activity of the City of Santa Clara, should contact the City's ADA Coordinator at 408-615-3000 as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.
