GENERAL BUSINESS

2. 21-969 Senior Advisory Commission Work Plan & Goals FY2021/22

Using the results from the 2017 Senior Needs Assessment and building upon the strategies that were suggested by focus group participants and partners, the Senior Advisory Commission continued to develop potential priorities and interests of older adult residents of Santa Clara ages 50 and over, utilizing the eight (8) domains of the Age-Friendly City guidelines. The Commission prioritized the list and developed objectives for each goal which included:

- Under the Community domain, the Commission decided to move the topic of Transitioning out of COVID-19 under the Health, Wellness, and Nutrition domain.

- The Commission narrowed down their list of ideas and developed the following potential 2021-22 Work Plan & Goals.

A. Advocate for Affordable and Convenient Housing

- a. Provide quarterly updates (via presentations, newsletter articles) on current Older Adult/affordable Housing projects in Santa Clara.
- b. Provide quarterly updates (via presentations, newsletter articles) on current Rental Assistance Programs in Santa Clara.

B. Develop Opportunities to Promote Health, Wellness, and Nutrition

- a. Educate and provide resources for older adults transitioning out of COVID-19 through monthly Senior Center Newsletter updates, 2 presentations, and 2 “share your experience” opportunities.
- b. Host the “Be Strong, Live Long” Health & Wellness Fair on Friday, May 20, 2022

At the August 23 Senior Advisory Commission meeting, the Commission will review, finalize, and adopt the Work Plan & Goals for FY2021/22.

STAFF REPORT

Recreation Supervisor Herb - provided Senior Center updates which included:

- Beginning August 2, the Senior Center will be open from 7 am - 3 pm. Additional program areas will include the Fitness Center and Snack Bar.
- During the month of August, patrons can take part in "Try Before You Buy" classes at the Senior Center. This option allows patrons to try a class before committing to a monthly session, as well as meet the instructor.
- Fall fitness classes will begin in September. Both online and in-person classes will be offered.

Recreation Supervisor Herb - shared with Commission that Commissioner Ana Segovia had resigned due to getting a job with the City of Sunnyvale.

COMMISSIONERS REPORT

Vice-Chair Toledo - shared with the Commission that she utilized Heart of the Valley to have hazard-waste material picked up from her home. She said the service was great and Heart of the Valley was easy to work with.

Chair McCauley - Thanked Recreation Supervisor Herb and Health & Wellness Coordinator Von Kugelgen for all their work and efforts at the Senior Center.

The time limit within which to commence any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City is governed by Section 1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless a shorter limitation period is specified by any other provision. Under Section 1094.6, any lawsuit or legal challenge to any quasi-adjudicative decision made by the City must be filed no later than the 90th day following the date on which such decision becomes final. Any lawsuit or legal challenge, which is not filed within that 90-day period, will be barred. If a person wishes to challenge the nature of the above section in court, they may be limited to raising only those issues they or someone else raised at the meeting described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City of Santa Clara, at or prior to the meeting. In addition, judicial challenge may be limited or barred where the interested party has not sought and exhausted all available administrative remedies.

If a member of the public submits a speaker card for any agenda items, their name will appear in the Minutes. If no speaker card is submitted, the Minutes will reflect "Public Speaker."

In accordance with the requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), the City of Santa Clara will not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability in its services, programs, or activities, and will ensure that all existing facilities will be made accessible to the maximum extent feasible. The City of Santa Clara will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities including those with speech, hearing, or vision impairments so they can participate equally in the City's programs, services, and activities. The City of Santa Clara will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities.

Agendas and other written materials distributed during a public meeting that are public record will be made available by the City in an appropriate alternative format. Contact the City Clerk's Office at 1 408-615-2220 with your request for an alternative format copy of the agenda or other written materials.

Individuals who require an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or any other disability-related modification of policies or procedures, or other accommodation, in order to participate in a program, service, or activity of the City of Santa Clara, should contact the City's ADA Coordinator at 408-615-3000 as soon as possible but no later than 48 hours before the scheduled event.
