DISCUSSION

The City Attorney has provided a memorandum to the City Council (attached) which provides background information on potential concerns regarding the appointment of Mr. Patrick to the Planning Commission and provides the Council with four possible courses of action:

1. Determine the staff investigation sufficiently provided evidence of irregularities regarding Mr. Patrick's residency and take action in accordance with Policy 032.
2. Determine that Mr. Patrick remain as a Planning Commissioner and take no further action.
3. Direct staff to conduct further investigation.
4. If Mr. Patrick is removed, there should be an action to appoint a new Commissioner.
